OLD STONE MAY WIN STAKE RACE: RAIN OR SHINE BEST AT UNION

holding. It will be slower than if it was aloppy.

There will be seven races again to-day. This seems to be the regular card at Union, and the extra race is proving an at-

The feature will be the Lafayette Park Handicap. It is a hard race. It is at a mile and three-eighths and will be sort of a survival of the fittest. With a good rider on Rain or Shine, with only 89 pounds what a chance this horse has.

up, what a chance this horse has.

His ghowing has been so bad the last few outs that his price should be very attractive in the books to-day. With a good boy up, Rain or Shine should win. Pisher looks the most available boy at this weight. He has shown himself to be a very competent jockey. There is one thing sure, the so-called Jockey Nelson will not ride Rain or Shine to-day, for he was set down by Judge Brady yesterday for his ride on Eufaila.

W. B. Gates will be a hard one to beat in the going and at the distance. He should be second and Bad Penny third. It will be remembered that Bad Penny wanted more distance his last out. He is fit and ready and will finish in the money. Attila has an outside chance.

Should The Messenger win in this going and at the weight, it would be the rankest reversal of form. With chaldens all in his favor the other day he could not win with 121 pounds. He does not like the mud and cannot be given even a chance of getting in the money.

Neko looks the best in the first race. On his race vesterday The Burfoon should be a contender, but second place rhould go to Will Shelly, a more consistent performer.

so to Will Shelly, a more consistent performer.

The third race looks very much like the Rice entry. With Fine Cut in at 108 pounds, and the going to his liking, and Bearhunter with only $3 pounds up. Rice can scarce lose the purse. Chicarra seems the only contender. He holds St. Resolute safe. Eleuchillo has the outside chance.

The Rice colors should be to the front again in the third race. Orleans with only 29 pounds up and Gus Lanka in with 36 pounds there would seem little chance of beating this combination. The Don is in this race. He is a fast one, but he cannot carry 150 pounds and beat every horse in this field. Yo San should be second and Hemlock third. King Crane has the outside chance, and a brilliant one at that. At long odds he is worth a bet.

Henry Leuhrmann, Jr., looks the winner of the fifth race. Little Pirate should

In the race for gentlemen riders Bluish, although to be ridden by Lumas, unquestionably the best gentleman rider, will dikely be weighted out. With a fair ride Double O shoud win this event. Bluish should be second and Acclepias third.

AT THE FAIR GROUNDS. The track at Union Park to-day will be Although Jack Young will be favorite in drying out, but still will be heavy and the Midsummer Handicap at the Fair Grounds this afternoon, it appears as though the Baker horse can be passed by in making selections, in favor of at least two other candidates on the card. One of these is Old Stone, the good 3year-old from the Mattingley stable. The other is the sturdy First Mason, who always packs big weight and who has almade a good showing in his races. Jack Young's price, according to esti-mates furnished by Charley Cella and two other well-known bookmakers of the Pair Grounds ring, will be 5 to 2, if all the entries start. Jordan will be second choice at 4 to 1. The ring is counting upon the track being holding, while making these prices, and any change in conditions is apt to reduce the odds offered against Old

Regardless of track conditions, however, it really seems as if Old Stone must be conceded a strong chance here—and it looks as if the Mattingley celt had a chance second to none to land the long end of the purse.

His ninety-eight pounds suit him exactly and he should be able to defeat First Mason, who is scheduled to pack 114. Jack Young is allotted 104 pounds, a weight which suits him, and the distance is also his favorite route. But it seems as if the first-mentioned pair should hold him safe.

The stake should furnish a good roce and is at a popular distance. The start is directly in front of the stand and the spectators have full opportunity to watch the horses at the post.

In the fifth race a first-class battle should result between Light Opera and Ancke, who tie up at seven furlongs. In spite of the fact that Ancke is a highclass mare when in perfect condition, and that she is said to be rounding into class mare when in perfect condition, and that she is said to be rounding into form, it looks as if Light Opera had a strong chance to beat the Abel entry here on the strength of his sterling race against Brancas a couple of days ago.

If Light Opera can run back to his form to-day, it seems as if he should get first place. Ancke looks second best. Floral Wreath may be able to get third money, while added interest will be lent by the presence of Mindora, the Sain colt of whom Barney Schreiber expected great things as a 2-year-old, but who became afflicted with fever in the fall of his 2-year-old form.

Alice Turner seems to have a chance for first money in the third race. This is a six-furlong sprint and the mare has been doing well enough of late to justify her selection here. Algonquin showed considerable speed in his last race, led for five furlongs and then stopped as if needing one more race. He may be second to-day. Miss Manners ought not to be worse than third.

In the sixth event Regina D. and Varna Fonso will the up. Varna is not a bad mare when in trim, and it seems as if she must be considered to-day, Regina looks to hold her, however, on the strength of her good race of a few days ago. Amberita may get show money.

In the last race J. W. O'Nelli looks somewhat the best, with Mattie H. a strong contender. This pair ought to have first place between them with old Joe Goss as the runner-up.

Fay Templeton looks well in the second race, a youngster race, and Mellwood should be the runner-up, with Loyal Street third.

Lord Touchwood ran a first-class face yesterday, and if he can get in motion a little more rapidly to-day he ought to win. The Hebrew may get second money for Fred Cook, and Doctor Kler should be third.

AN EASY WINNER

Dockery Mare Galloped Home in Feature at the Fair Grounds, Beating Charlie Thompson and Otto Stifel.

handleap at the Fair Grounds vesterday, the Dockery mare galloping in, an easy winner over Charley Thompson and Otto seemed much relieved by the number of pounds dropped from her last race and won without trouble. According to the statement of a bookmaker, she would have been held at a much shorter price in the wagering had it not been for the belief that one of her legs had shown signs of a curb, which seemed to lesson her chances. If she is in any danger of throwing a curb, she showed no signs of it in the race. She simply spreadeagled her field down the stretch and easily held Charley down the stretch and easily held Charley Thompson safe. The latter had his usual carly speed, seemed to be out of it at the stretch head when the field got to him then drew away again and came second across the line.

Elastic and Otto Stifel were the betting choices in this race, but each performed rather bunglingly in the mid. Otto Stifel seeming to stumble a furlong out, when apparently in a commanding position.

Dismitile won another race for the Bennett stable in the second, but she had to fight hard for first money. Loretta M. from the Milam barn, had a high burst of speed, tied up with the Bennett filly at the stretch head, and only yielded first place by a neck at the wire. It was one of the tightest fits for first money that Dishabille has yet encountered in her winning races.

Thane was held at 1 to 2 in the betting in the fifth race, and justified his price by the minner in which he won. Yet for a brief instant near the stable and strotch turns, when Wounded Knee led for the early stages and when Decoration made his bid at the turn into the straight, it seemed as if the Milam gelding might possibly he beaten.

Once set down for home, however, there was nothing to it but Thane. He won in his customary wasy fashion, and Lord Touchwood, who was absolutely last rounding the first turn and who made up many lengths, came strongly enough at the close to get the place from Decoration. Thompson safe. The latter had his usual early speed, seemed to be out of it at the stretch head when the field got to him, Trapsetter showed most foudness for the going in the last race and led his field past the wire. Imboden sulked at the post for an instant, getting off very badly, then started after his field, made up an immense amount of ground and just did get third money from John Doyle. The boy on Doyle seemed to believe that he had the show position assured and eased up a trifle too soon.

owasca easily captured the second from Miss Doyle and Floridor. Jockey Stoval was fined 125 by the judges for striking Jockey McLaughlin with his whip in the last race.

Honda was made the favorite at even money, but the talent did not allow that price to prevail very long, and the volume of wagers came in so strong that the price was backed down and settled at 4

The Roustabout won the 2-year-old event. He was coupled in the betting with San Prime. They ran one, two. Ella Waggoner was a poor third.
Chuliflower, at a long price, wen the first race. Lolly Dalley was second, and Hallucination third. All were outsiders in first race. Lelly Dalley was second, and Hallacination third. All were outsiders in the betting.

Henderson piloted Holcum to victory in the fourth race. Holcum was 7 to 1 and was really the "alce" bet of the day. Second Sight ran second and Solan Shingle third. The latter was heavily played and was forced as a favorite.

The stable boy Nelson, who, under the guise of a fockey, had been allowed to ride, was suspended for his poor showing on Euralia in the fifth race. Red Ola won this race. Off last, Hilarity closed a wide gap and ran second. Off with an even break, Hilarity should have won.

Alline Abbott, off last, ran a dull race. She was either not forced to her best or showed a decided lack of speed. This mare ran two good races recently and appeared to be getting better. Vesterday she showed a decided reversal of form. The Buffoon won the sixth race. Symphony was second and Alline Abbott a poor third.

In the prettiest steeplechase on the new course, Mr. Rose won handly from a good field.
